Indians in Pakistani Jails

347. SMT. SUKHBUNS KAUR :
SHRI KALRAJ MISHRA:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether a large number of Indians, including those Armed Forces personnel declared missing during Indo-Pak wars of 1965,1971 and the Kargil War, are still in Pakistani Jails;

(b) if so, the number of such Indians and the Army Personnel in Pak Jails as on January 1, 2005; and

(c) the steps taken and being taken to confirm their identity and to get them released?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) and (b) As of January 1, 2005, according to available information, around 900 Indian civilian prisoners, over 650 fishermen and 54 Prisoners of War (POWs) are believed to be in custody in Pakistan. Pakistan Government has been consistently denying existence of any Indian POWs in Pakistan.

(c) During the Foreign Secretary Level Talks between the two countries on June, 27-28,2004 in New Delhi, India proposed to work for the reciprocal release of all prisoners who have been granted Consular Access, whose nationality has been confirmed and who have completed their sentences. The two sides agreed to initiate steps for early release of civilian prisoners.

The issue of release of Indian prisoners was again taken up during the Foreign Secretary level talks between India & Pakistan held in New Delhi on September 4, 2004 as well as during higher level discussions, such as during the visit to India by the Prime Minister of Pakistan on November 23-24,2004. The issue of release of all Indian fishermen along with their
